

Just walk across the room

John 4:1-6

Where are you now?

What are your connections?
Who do you relate to?
What people are you seeing regularly?
Who are your workmates?

The Envelope

Today we all received an envelope. Inside it is a piece of paper. I would like you to open it and write down five names of people that you connect with outside of church/Christ.

Now write down who is furtherest from Christ in your opinion right now and who is closest. Don't worry because people can move very quickly from being far to being close. This is just a snap shot of your world right now.

Where are they now?

1. Connection

We meet people either through work, play or living. Introduce our selves. BE NORMAL. Life is full of connections.

2. Friendship – Multiple connections

You've meet more than a dozen times. You know them, work or do something regularly with them.

Who do you have multiple connections with? Your husband, your wife, your children.

3. Reason – Deliberate connection/ invitation

Following the prompting of the Holy Spirit to ask or make direct connections.

Jesus said to this woman 'Give me a drink'.

Can you cut my hair? Can You come over for a BBQ? Do you want to go to the movies? Do you want to play a game of golf? Would you like to go to the beach? Can you help me? Can I help you?

Unless you ask the simple questions you are mostly likely NOT going to ask the God one's?

4. Life ----- Questions Desperate Connections

Every person will go through a time in their life where questions are asked. The biggest question is whether you are there and are ready for it?

5. Your Story – Your Connection

100 words or less... NOTHING MORE

6. Church – Divine Connection

7. Commitment

This is a fluid scale. It shifts with time and location. People move around 1-4 regularly.

So this week I want to place a challenge before you. I want you to deliberately connect with those on your list.

Jesus needed to go through Samaria. This was completely out of His way. He had to go over a mountain, away from the river Jordan just to get to the well. He had to do it. Isn't just a maybe, or we'll see but rather a definitely. He had to do it. Maybe, just maybe you have to connect with people this week. You just never know where people are.

Get ready for God is about to open divine, supernatural doors on your world.
